Erickson Global View Symposium
Internationalizing Graduate Education: Focusing Discourse, Defining Knowledge, Enhancing Practice
Michigan State University
March 20-21, 2014
The University Club

Thursday, March 20

2:00-2:30p.m. Registration and Refreshments (Ballroom)

2:30-3:00p.m. Welcome and Introduction (Ballroom)
Dr. Marilyn Amey, Chair, Department of Educational Administration; Professor, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education, Michigan State University
Dr. Donald E. Heller, Dean of the College of Education; Professor, Department of Educational Administration, Michigan State University
Dr. Karen Klomparens, Associate Provost of Graduate Education; Dean of the Graduate School; Professor of Plant Biology, Michigan State University

3:00-4:00p.m. Global Higher Education Trends and the Internationalization of Graduate Education
Dr. Philip Altbach, Monan University Professor, Educational Leadership and Higher Education Department, Boston College
Session Facilitator: Kristen Renn, Associate Dean of Undergraduate Studies and Director for Student Success Initiatives, Michigan State University

4:00-4:15p.m. Break

4:15-5:00p.m. Key Findings from the GLEO Study of Graduate Education Abroad (Ballroom)
Brett Berquist, Executive Director, Office of Study Abroad, Michigan State University
Dr. John Dirkx, Professor and Mildred B. Erickson Distinguished Chair, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education, Michigan State University
Dr. Kristin Janka Millar, Director, International Engagement, National and International Fellowships and Scholarships Office, Michigan State University
Gina Vizvary, Doctoral Candidate, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education, Michigan State University

Response by Dr. Karen Klomparens, Associate Provost of Graduate Education; Dean of the Graduate School; Professor of Plant Biology, Michigan State University

5:00-6:15p.m. Design and Implementation of Short-Term Abroad Programs for Graduate Students: Implications for Professional Programs (Ballroom/Rooms 106/107)

5:00-5:15 An Integrated Organizational View of Study Abroad in Graduate Professional Education (Ballroom)
Julie Sinclair, Admissions Assistant Director, Sponsored Student Recruitment; Doctoral Candidate, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education, Michigan State University

5:15-6:15 Interprofessional Global Health Education: An Experimental Model and an Educational Framework (Room 106)
Dr. Jody Olsen, Visiting Professor, School of Social Work and Co-Chair, UMB Global Health Interprofessional Council, University of Maryland-Baltimore

STEM Education Abroad: The Global Laboratory (Room 107)
Dr. Nicola (Nikki) Kernaghan, Associate Director, Program Development, International Center, University of Florida

6:30p.m. Dinner (Ballroom)
Friday, March 21

8:30-9:00 a.m.    Breakfast and Late Registration (Ballroom)

9:00-9:15 a.m.    Review Agenda

9:15-10:30 a.m.   Acculturation, Identity, and Graduate Study Abroad (Ballroom)
                  Dr. Victor Savicki, Professor of Psychology, Emeritus, Western Oregon University

                  Response by Dr. James Buschman, Senior Director, External Relations, Office of Global Affairs, New York University

10:30-10:45 a.m.  Break

10:45-11:45 a.m.  Processing the International Experience: Perspectives from the College of Education
                  (Room 106/107)
                  Dr. John Dirks, Professor and Mildred B. Erickson Distinguished Chair, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education, Michigan State University
                  Gina Vizvary, Doctoral Candidate, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education, Michigan
                  State University

                  Student Panelists:
                  Inese Berzina-Pitcher, Doctoral Student, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education
                  Nate Clason, Doctoral Candidate, Higher, Adult and Lifelong Education
                  Lorena Gutierrez, Doctoral Candidate, Curriculum, Instruction and Teacher Education
                  Cuong Nguyen, Doctoral Student, Curriculum, Instruction and Teacher Education

11:45 a.m.-12:15 p.m. Lessons Learned and Future Directions (Room 106/107)

12:15-1:15 p.m.    Lunch and Informal Conversation (Ballroom)