Art Education Assistant Professor, Fixed Term
College of Education
Michigan State University

The Department of Teacher Education at Michigan State University (MSU), a national leader in teacher preparation and research on teaching, learning, curriculum, policy, and international education, is seeking an Assistant Professor (Fixed Term) in Art Education. The person who fills this position will be an active participant in shaping and implementing subject related policies and procedures within the College of Education, including participating in Subject Area Leader meetings and departmental faculty meetings, and maintaining communication with the appropriate offices in the College of Education and the College of Arts and Letters. This is a full-time (9 months) academic year position with a starting date of August 16, 2017. The initial appointment will be for a period of 3 years.

Duties: The successful candidate will serve as Subject Area Leader for the K-12 art education program; promote academic excellence and innovation in art education; teach required classes in elementary arts integration and K-12 visual arts education; ensure program compliance with state and national accreditation standards; coordinate field placements and supervise student teaching interns; collaborate with the Department of Art, Art History & Design in the College of Arts and Letters; maintain ongoing relationships with the local art education community and the field of art education nationally; and engage in service as assigned by the Department Chair.

Qualifications: An earned Ph.D., Ed.D. or terminal degree focused on Art or evidence that such a degree will be completed prior to the start of the appointment; K-12 teaching experience; commitment to the success of diverse learners; evidence of excellence in teaching and the ability to teach in face-to-face and online environments; strong track record of collaboration; and knowledge of current issues, trends, theories and practices of Art Education.

Application and Deadline: Interested candidates should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae (including the names and contact information for at least 3 references), and one writing sample to: jobs.msu.edu, posting number 4030. We invite inquiries from potentially interested candidates to the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Christina Schwarz (c.schwarz@msu.edu). Review of applications will begin October 31 2016, and will continue until the position is filled.

Please see the departmental website for more information about the Teacher Preparation Program (www.education.msu.edu/te/) and College website (www.educ.msu.edu/) for more information.

Michigan State University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. The University actively encourages applications from women, persons of color, veterans, and persons with disabilities.