

Tuesday
November 20
11:00-noon
Room 252
Erickson Hall, MSU

Free and open to the public, light refreshments will be served

Presentation by Dr. Janet Alleman

Using Cultural Universals
as an Approach for Revitalizing Elementary
Social Studies

Janet Alleman is a professor of teacher education and K-12 educational administration at Michigan State University with interests in undergraduate and graduate social studies education and teacher/administrator collaborative initiatives. She is a member of the ASSIST project writing team sponsored by Michigan State University and the Michigan Department of Education and a member of the Research Committee for the National Council for Social Studies. She is co-author of Children's Thinking about Cultural Universals, winner of the 2006 Exemplary Research in Social Studies Award.